DETAILED ACTION

Claim Objections

Claims 1-6 are objected to because of the following informalities: Please use consistent claim terminology. For example, it appears "a stationary member" should be --said stator-- in the second to last line of claim 1. Also, "topped" (line 9) should be --stopped--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

1. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

2. Claims 1-6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Burgmann (3,973,779).

Burgmann (see Figs. 4 and 5) discloses a sealing device comprising a rotor 25d mounted to a shaft 3 and a stator 6d mounted to a housing 2. A movable floating ring 19d is mounted in a seal gap formed between the rotor and stator. The rotor has a seal lip 10d that contacts a face of the stator (at 11d) when the shaft is stopped and that is spaced from the face due to centrifugal force when the shaft rotates (see col. 7, lines 30-33 and 56-59). The floating ring has an annular notch (e.g. at 22d) and a concavoconvex pattern 23d on its surface. As seen in the Figures, the gap and ring varies in diameter from the left to the right. The floating ring appears to have a length (in an axial direction) greater than a thickness (in a radial direction). However, Burgmann does not specifically disclose the ratio of 3 to 1. It is not considered inventive to discover the optimum or workable ranges by routine experimentation absent some showing of criticality. See In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233, 235 (CCPA 1955). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the length at least 3 times the thickness.

Regarding claims 2 and 3, Burgmann does not disclose the material used. The selection of a known material based on its suitability for its intended use is considered obvious. See In re Leshin, 125 USPQ 416 (CCPA 1960). Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to make the ring from fluorine resin.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-6 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure.

5. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
